

The Airl station allows the christian community to be apart of a valuable team. It allows us to communicate with fellow christians. If another station were to take priority over Airl, it would not allow for God to minister to the fortunate souls who lack direction. It is the best interest of the public because we are apart of this community and have the right to hear the message that God has for us.